

GEP NAMED A TOP PROCUREMENT SOLUTIONS PROVIDER BY CIO REVIEW MAGAZINE

- SMART by GEP® is the industry's leading cloud-native, unified source-to-pay software platform

CLARK, N.J., February 16, 2018 — GEP, a leading provider of procurement software and procurement services to Fortune 500 and Global 2000 enterprises worldwide, has been named a top solutions provider by CIO Review magazine, a leading IT publication that brings CIOs and other senior IT executives the latest news and information on effective enterprise solutions.

SMART by GEP® provides complete source-to-pay functionality in one user-friendly, unified platform, inclusive of spend analysis, sourcing, contract management, supplier management, procure-to-pay, savings project management and savings tracking, invoicing and other related functionalities.

SMART by GEP is a thoughtfully conceived, beautifully designed 'consumerized' digital work environment — a digital workplace precision-engineered for sourcing and procurement professionals. And they love it.

Intuitive design, stunning visual appeal, intelligent interfaces, the ability to move fluidly and naturally from task to task, and the ability to work on any platform and any device drive strong adoption rates and levels of user happiness.

SMART by GEP leverages cloud economics to deliver a solution that easily handles the heaviest processing requirements of GEP's Fortune 500 and Global 2000 clients, while eliminating burdensome infrastructure and support costs.

The application, purpose-built on a single code base for optimum performance in the cloud, is also native to touch and mobile technologies, enabling users to work anywhere, any time, on any device.

SMART by GEP is easy to set up, deploy and use, with no extensive training required. All GEP products are platform agnostic (they work with SAP, Lawson, Oracle or any other major ERP or F&A system). And with superb support and service, GEP is an industry leader in customer satisfaction.
