

SMART BY GEP® UNIFIED PROCUREMENT SOFTWARE SELECTED BY AAMC

- Association representing the nation’s medical schools and teaching hospitals chooses GEP’s unified procurement software platform for comprehensive sourcing, contract management and supplier management

Clark, N.J. – August 29, 2019 – GEP, a leading provider of procurement software and procurement services to FTSE 250, Fortune 500 and Global 2000 enterprises worldwide, announced today that the Association of American Medical Colleges (AAMC) has selected SMART by GEP® procurement software, the industry’s leading cloud-native direct and indirect procurement software platform.

Headquartered in Washington, D.C., the AAMC will be using the SMART by GEP unified procurement software platform for its full range of sourcing, contract and supplier management functions.

SMART by GEP’s unified source-to-pay software platform is a complete procurement platform that unifies all the functions of procurement in a single product that is native to cloud, touch and mobile technologies. SMART by GEP leverages cloud economics to deliver a solution that easily handles the heaviest processing requirements of GEP’s Fortune 500 and Global 2000 clients, while eliminating burdensome infrastructure and support costs.

All GEP products are platform agnostic (they work with SAP, Oracle and all other major ERP and F&A systems). And with superb support and service, GEP is an industry leader in customer satisfaction.

SMART by GEP provides complete source-to-pay functionality in one user-friendly, cloud-native platform, inclusive of spend analysis, sourcing, contract management, supplier management, procure-to-pay, savings project management and savings tracking, invoicing and other related functionalities. The award-winning, cloud S2P platform is native to touch and mobile technologies, enabling users to work anywhere, anytime, on any device.
